Guest Speaker: Claud Bramblett - “Real History Is Sometimes More Amazing and Surprising Than Fiction”

Mr. Bramblett is Professor Emeritus from the University of Texas Department of Anthropology and a PSNA member. His research showed that “Fort Webber” was a house and not a fort. It no longer exists, but it probably was located in or near the village of Webberville. Photos of the house will be shown. According to Mr. Bramblett, “I am sure that every neighborhood has such stories if we were motivated to look for them.”
